Introduction & Instructions: Thank you for coming to tonight's workshop! After the City's presentation, please take some time to look at the boards around this room illustrating the 4 street design options that have been developed based on community input. Each one strikes a different balance in how the street right of way is allocated. The City is eager to hear your feedback on these concepts.

1. How well do you like the design of the following features of each option?
